

South River Public Library Hosts Legal Services of New Jersey

Tuesday, September 20, 2022, 6 p.m. - 7 p.m.

South River Public Library, 55 Appleby Ave, South River, NJ

The New Jersey Legal Services system consists of five regional nonprofits and Legal Services of New Jersey (LSNJ), the statewide coordinating body. Legal Services has been providing free legal assistance to low-income New Jerseyans for 55 years. In this presentation, we will discuss how to apply for legal assistance, ways to stay up to date on important legal information, and how to use our legal resource website LSNJLAWSM.

REGISTER AT <https://bit.ly/3allv5S>

PRESENTER

Alayna Berg

Director of Outreach
Legal Services of New Jersey

SOUTH RIVER PUBLIC LIBRARY

This event is a collaboration of Legal Services of New Jersey and South River Public Library. It is an informational event only. Individual cases will not be discussed. If you need help, contact LSNJ's statewide toll-free Hotline at 1-888-LSNJ-LAW or apply online at www.lsnjlawhotline.org. New Jersey's statewide Legal Services network provides free advice and representation to low-income New Jerseyans with civil legal problems. Learn more about our services at LSNJLAW.org.