

Legal Services
of
New Jersey

LEGAL HELP

Toll Free 888-222-5765
www.lsnjlawhotline.org

Legal Services of New Jersey

Legal Services of New Jersey provides direct legal assistance to New Jersey residents with civil legal problems related to Hurricane Sandy.

We can help with FEMA applications and appeals, access other benefits, obtain safe affordable housing, and handle other legal issues to assist families and New Jersey communities recover from Hurricane Sandy.

To those who qualify, our services are FREE.

Food Assistance

If you are in need of food, visit the New Jersey Anti-Hunger Coalition web site at www.njahc.org/food-pantries.html to find an open food pantry in your area.

To apply for SNAP benefits (formerly the food stamp program) go to your county Board of Social Services. You may also begin an application online at www.njhelps.org.

Information about counseling or dealing with emotional problems after Hurricane Sandy

For confidential mental health information and referrals during times of wide-spread disaster, call the New Jersey Disaster Mental Health HelpLine at (877) 294-HELP (4357) or the TTY line for the deaf and hearing impaired at (877) 294-4356.

See New Jersey Hope at www.state.nj.us/humanservices/dmhs/disaster for more information and a helpful brochure from the New Jersey Department of Human Services.

The Legal Services of New Jersey Hurricane Sandy Legal Assistance Hotline is open Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. You may also apply for Legal Services online at www.lsnjlawhotline.org. You will receive a response within 2 business days.

