THE RISE IN ANTI-ASIAN DISCRIMINATION

Hate speech and attacks against the Asian Americans and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community have been on the rise for the past several years.

This Justice Series event will include various perspectives on this topic, from state agency reporting and affirmative and preventative work around bias incidents, to corporate responses, AAPI education and curriculum advocacy, and current scholarship on issues impacting the AAPI community.

This discussion, bringing together various experts in the field, will be moderated by Jhanice V. Domingo, Esq., member of the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey and the LSNJ Board of Trustees.

This event is proudly sponsored by Verizon, Inc.

This event is free and open to the public.
